Our Prime Duty Is To Serve Humanity

AAGHOSH TRUST

SHAGUFTA SABA

Founder / President
Aaghosh Trust

I would like to convey an important message that parents are incredibly precious in every aspect of life.

They are the most precious gift of GOD for humans as the life becomes a paradise with the existence of parents. If there was not the compassion and care of the parents, children would have remained the piece of flesh. The importance of parents felt by those who were deprived of them in early age. Unfortunately, there are very few people in our surroundings who belittle the value of their parents. They sink so low deserting them and it is a great sin through the lens of Islam. Our holy prophet Muhammad Peace Be Upon Him said that "One who displeases the parents, (it is as if) he has displeased ALLAH and One who angers both his Parents (it is as if) he has angered ALLAH".

2012 remained unfortunate year for the Karachi, as the city of lights turned into the darkness of fear and terror and deprived many families of their loved ones and left scores of people homeless and unserved. Given the circumstances I made a firm decision to step up with a view and with unbridled passion of providing the deprived mothers and sisters with shelter who suffered at the hands of terrorism.

Alhamdulillah Aaghosh trust has been serving day and night with absolute dedication and an aim of boosting and enhancing their quality of lives. I humbly request to all benevolent and considerate people to be a part of this noble cause by joining hands so that we may become a reason of their happiness and a shield most importantly to illuminate the lives of needy and deserving senior citizens with the lights of support.

Human beings are superior to all other creations because they are distinct in caring for and helping their fellow being, otherwise, we would have never got this elated respect.

MESSAGE FROM BOARD OF TURSTEES

It is a general truth that the human-being are superior to other creations because they have innate ability of caring for and helping other humans. This ability of care and respect towards other results in the elated respect in return. ”

ماں خُدا کا رحم، وہ دُنیا میں جنت کی سفیر

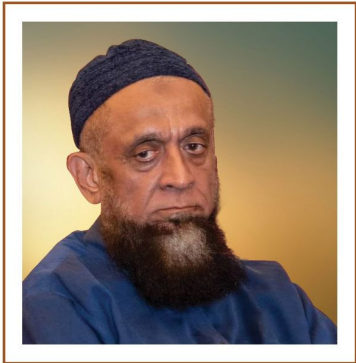

MR. YAHYA POLANI
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

Let me start by sharing that there are several acts that we perform for Allah's satisfaction and acceptance. Many of the individuals as well as organizations which support humanity in numerous ways. However, if we speak of Aaghosh, I am delighted as a trustee to see that Aaghosh Trust is an organization that continue to serve the homeless people. Aaghosh Trust offers its services to those people, those are disowned by their loved ones, left out by society, and underserved due to many reasons and need a helping hand.

It is an unfortunate that "Parents can take very good care of all of her children may it be 4 or 5 or so on but when children are grown-up all of them collectively are not able to properly take care of their parents". It is a matter of concern that, if children are unable to take care of their parents, then to whom these elderly souls should search for the support. In such circumstances, organizations like Aaghosh Trust reminds us that it is our collective responsibility to give back to society and fulfill our societal obligation.

It fills me with pride and joy to be a trustee of Aaghosh Trust and watch them work by giving back on our behalf. I would like to congratulate the chairperson of Aaghosh Trust along with the trustee because they are thinking of Aaghosh as a mission and serving the people who are even ignored by their families. I am glad that I have been a part of the Aaghosh family for a while and will continue to support Aaghosh in the future as well. I would also like to request more philanthropists to join and support Aaghosh family and continue to offer their guidance and patronage.

ماں اللہ تعالیٰ کی نعمتِ عظیم

HAJI MASOOD PAREKH
VICE PRESIDENT

Assalam u Alikum, there is a saying that if a person is pleased to support something with heart and soul, he/she should make sure to do it. And the work that is to please Allah is under Aaghosh's supervision I would like to pray for Allah's blessing to continue our work. The best service for humankind is to serve the people of Allah, I know many large organizations that are performing their services for humankind.

I find it necessary the way that my colleague and brother Haji Tariq and I together visit Aaghosh we always wonder as to how Allah is helping these underprivileged people. I also witness the dedication of the chairperson and other team members in managing the help of the needy people. That is the reason of growth and progress of the Aaghosh Trust. I would like to request more organizations to support the Aaghosh Trust and the people in need. Aaghosh collaborates with the people who are left out by their own children and relatives. It is not only the financial support they are seeking, even if sitting with them for a while, sharing the compassion and helping hand will matter the most. I urge people and organizations to help them the same way as Aaghosh reminds us of the blessings of Allah. This is also a service to Allah's people, and it also is a pleasure for us as well that Allah is allowing us to serve him in the same manner along with the selected people namely the chairperson and their team.

The value of life is not in its duration, but in its donation. You are not important because of how long you live, you are important because of how effective you live.

ماں شفقت، خلوص، بے لوث محبت اور قربانی کا دوسرا نام ہے

I am very thankful to Almighty Allah that I opened my eyes in the family who not only give respect but also provide shelter and serve humanity specially those senior citizens who were left abandoned by their near and dear ones. I started serving humanity especially destitute old, aged mothers with my mother. I feel enormously proud that I engaged in this noble cause from last 20 years.

A human can achieve anything but very few people have peace of mind, Alhamdulillah's I found my peace of in incredibly early age. My message for people specially youngsters is please respecting your elders and give them time and importance, so you will not get reward in this world and hereafter.

MADAM TANVEER ZUBERI
TRUSTEE / TREASURER

میں ماں کو پیار سے دیکھتی گئی اور عبادت ہوتی گئی

It is my pleasure to write a message for Aaghosh home's profile. I joined this place about 4-5 years back. I remember when I first entered Aaghosh home, I was stunned to see so many ladies who are looked after so well.

Among the beneficiaries at the Aaghosh Trust Old Age Home, majority of the people were homeless, while few of them were widows, few people had difficulty in seeing and few more were with special needs. They all were treated with love, dedication, and constant care. Every lady is so satisfied as if they are living with their daughters. This selfless work and round the clock availability not only required a big heart and courage but also lot of resources and support. The force behind this is a brave lady, Shagufta Saba who is managing this organization with the help of her son and committed team members.

“

The one with a beautiful heart doesn't shout for attention. Every act is sincere; not to impress or show off but to please the Almighty.”

IN HOUSE COUNSELING:

Elderly people often neglected, and do not really have a chance to say how they are feeling, or what has gone on for them during their lives. Counseling is the best way out of better understanding of the inmate's rehabilitation process. It gives them a chance to express fully, and it makes them a part of the house. Most of the time they come back from their loneliness and respond with others.

Aaghosh Trust has been providing its uncountable services with the great passion of humanity from 18 years. Aaghosh started its pronounced mission in 2003, it was the institution who prior to all helped special children/persons in getting their respectable place in the society, because it is the fact that special child does not get attention in the society which they deserve. Other than that, when special child born in any family, they face lots of issues and problems, majority of them are created by our society and lack of facilitation provided by our government sector. Aaghosh took this essential responsibility to have disable/handicapped persons got their deserved rights in the society at the time even when there were no significant institutions available for their education or either training.

Our goal was to create awareness in the societies that there should be special institutions for disabled persons like normal children's schools where they get all the necessary needs to be fulfilled. If you observed in now days, special children's schools and training centers are doubtless proof that Aaghosh has really helped handicapped persons in getting their legal rights in the society. Moreover, it has not only empathized with their needs but fulfilled them.

With corrective education and vocational training, Aaghosh has made these handicapped children capable to the level where they can stand on their own feet and now can earn by themselves. We have also arranged exhibitions in different hotels, seminars even in expo center to show people that if we provide the required attention and facility to these disabled persons, so they can perform better and can be able to earn by themselves instead of begging. The purpose behind this was to realize that handicapped persons are not useless. They can be a productive for our society if we fulfill their needs.

Aaghosh Home has been setup with the aim of providing shelter, hygienic food, medical assistance, and home like environment with peace of mind to those unassisted handicapped and senior women who do not have anyone to take care. Many of them are those old women old widow mothers who lost their son and the only bread earner in some incident. Women adduced in Aaghosh home faced very difficulties, hurdles, and mishaps in their lives, due to this most of them are mentally depressed and psychotic patient or mentally and physically handicapped. In Aaghosh Home, these women get relieve with their worries of surviving in this harsh world alone specially in their old age and find them a new life with all basic needs. care and extra attention.

SERVICES

Just like the rest of us, elderly people also want to enjoy good health and an independent life. As people grow older, remaining independent often depends on their health, well-being and social care service being effective enough to support them. Elderly people mostly required health and social care services but often these services are extremely limited comparing to their needs.

The core objective of the program is to make sure that all elderly people and their care takers are always treated with respect, dignity, and fairness. The Aaghosh Trust Old Age Home premises offers a decent infrastructure, including clean and comfortable beds and livings rooms, dormitories, and physical & social activities area impeccably appropriate to cater to the needs of elderly people. The design of the premises was conceived after visiting and assessing facilities and arrangements of several similar institutions to make it appropriate living space for the inmates.

HOUSING WITH CARE:

Aaghosh Home provides complete housing services during day and night. It is not the center for working people. It is a place for marginalized and abandon senior citizens and they have a liberty to enjoy as they desire.

HEALTH CARE:

Older people have many degenerative diseases to deal with such as Arthritis, Rheumatism, Osteoporosis, High blood pressure, Heart failure, and Strokes. Along with all the physical pain and debilitating illness, they need daily medical checkup and medication which keep them save from the diseases. with any medical urgency.

PHYSIO THERAPY:

As the elderly people go in the life later stages their physical frailty increases and the body does not respond accordingly. To keep them robust they need daily gentle exercises and gym for fitness. Aaghosh Home has a fully equipped Physical therapy and rehabilitation unit to meet the needs of inmates.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion.
